Dear Judge Gorence:

Re: Grace Christian Fellowship v. KJG
Investments, Inc., et al
Case No. 07-C-0348

The parties in the above referenced matter have continued to exchange drafts of the settlement agreement and related documents. We are now getting very, very close. In fact, I do not want to jinx anything, but I believe we may have documents that are finally ready for signature. However, due to travel schedules, we may not be able to have these documents executed until the first week of March. In order to provide a cushion in the event that a further round of revisions is necessary, the plaintiff respectfully requests that the court again grant an extension of time to submit the final settlement documents. If we could please have until March 21, 2014, that should provide enough cushion to finally get this wrapped up.

Thank you for your continued patience. If the court would like to discuss this matter with the parties, please do not hesitate to let us know. Thank you for your consideration.

Yours very truly,

/s/ David G. Peterson
